Holdings of Catholic-related records about Native Americans:

Inclusive dates: 1593-present, undated

Volume: Over 700 cubic feet and 568 reels of microfilm

Description: More than 50 collections include Native Catholic records about American Indians and Eskimos in the United States plus additional records about native peoples either not Catholic-related or pertaining to peoples in Canada and Latin America. With an introductory narrative and an annotated collections checklist, Christianity and Native America provides a gateway to online catalog records and extensive descriptive inventories of all native-related collections that are fully processed and ready for research use. Also included for genealogists are special descriptions of genealogical records and a request form for their research needs.
