The permission to use an image from the collections of the Marquette University Libraries is granted as long as the following conditions are met.

1. Permission must be requested in writing or electronically using the Application for Printing, Publication or Exhibition. Possession of an image does not constitute the permission to use it.
2. Permission is for one-time, one-project use only. Marquette retains all rights to the images, and they may not be used for any other purpose than that listed on this application.
3. Credit must be given to the "Department of Special Collections and University Archives, Marquette University Libraries" and the creator of the work, if known.
4. Credit must appear with the image or on a credit page that indicates page number and position on the page.
5. If the image is still under copyright and the copyright is not held by Marquette University, the requestor must seek permission from the creator of the work or from the current copyright holder. The archives staff will provide the creator's name, if known.
6. Marquette University assumes no responsibility for infraction of copyright laws, invasion of privacy, or any other improper or illegal use that may arise from reproduction of any image. In all instances the applicant agrees to hold the University and its agents harmless against any and all claims arising or resulting from the use of this image and shall indemnify the University and its agents for any and all costs and damages arising or resulting from any such authorized use.
7. Photographs may be cropped to suit design and layout, but they may not be altered, colorized, or drawn upon without a letter of permission in addition to a signed permission form.
8. Marquette University Libraries reserves the right to decline permission to publishers and individuals who have not complied with these conditions.
9. In some cases, the Marquette University Libraries will request a copy of the publication be donated to the Libraries. Please send to the address printed above.
