

WHAT IS DOXING?

To dox someone is “to publicly identify or publish private information about (someone) especially as a form of punishment or revenge.”

(Merriam-Webster)

WHY IS DOXING HARMFUL?

Doxing can often lead to ruthless and hateful online attacks, including death threats. It can not only impact the individual but often affects the individual’s family and friends.

DID McADAMS DOX?

Yes. McAdams purposefully published the student teacher’s name and contact information on the internet, with the knowledge of the harm that it would cause. He then immediately and repeatedly sought opportunities to amplify his blog story on cable news, talk radio and multiple media outlets.
