

EUROPE:

Integration/Disintegration?

Friday, Nov. 20

Raynor Memorial Libraries
Beaumier Suites

-
- 8:45 a.m. Welcome
Dr. Richard Holz, dean, Klingler College of Arts and Sciences
- Keynote: Crises at the Border
Martin A. Schain, professor of politics, New York University
- 10:15 a.m. Current Economic Situation in Europe: Challenges and Opportunities
Dr. Abdur Chowdhury, professor of economics
Dr. Joseph Daniels, chair and professor of economics
Dr. David Krause, adjunct assistant professor of finance
- 11:30 a.m. Russia and Ukraine: The Historical, Demographic, and International Causes of the 2014-15 Crisis
Dr. Lowell Barrington, chair and associate professor of political science
- 1:15 p.m. Panel: Social Policy and Austerity/Equality
Social Policy in an Era of Austerity: Is Social Europe Becoming Liberal America? -Dr. Duane Swank, professor of political science
- Health Care in the Age of Austerity
-Dr. Susan Giaimo, visiting assistant professor of political science
- Pension Marketization in America and Europe
-Dr. Michael McCarthy, assistant professor of social and cultural sciences
- 2:45 p.m. Panel: Migration
Against Silence, Which is Slavery: The Necessary Question of Language
-Dr. John Pustejovsky, associate professor of German
- Rhetoric and Cultural Representations Concerning the Immigration Question in Spain -Dr. Jeffrey Coleman, assistant professor of foreign languages
- Matryoshka Journeys: Im/mobility During Migration Across the Americas and the Mediterranean -Dr. Noelle Brigdan, assistant professor of political science
- 4 p.m. Reception

Sponsored by: Office of International Education and Raynor Memorial Libraries