4th Latinx Philosophy & APA Society for Mexican American Philosophy Conference
Marquette University, May 2-4, 2019

Keynote Speakers
Jacqueline Martinez
(Arizona State University)
“Commitments to Embodied Realities at the Border: Latinx and Mexican American Philosophy”

José Medina
(Northwestern University)
“Imagining Otherwise: Resisting and Queering Latinx Gender Violence”

Sponsored By: Marquette University: Department of Philosophy, Center for Research and Innovation, Department of Languages Literatures and Cultures, The Center for Transnational Justice, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, the Center for the Advancement of the Humanities, and the Marquette Forum, UW Milwaukee Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies: A Title VI National Resource Center funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Rutgers University, Seton Hall University

Full Conference Program
Department of Philosophy Website and the Latinx Philosophy Facebook Page

Schedule & Locations
5/2: 4:00 PM- 8:00 PM, Haggerty Museum of Art
5/3-5/4: AMU, 254 (All Day)