

The

REV. FRANCIS WADE, S.J., PUBLIC LECTURE

T.S. Eliot and Fascism

Rev. Jayme Stayer, S.J.

Father Stayer is the Rev. Francis Wade, S.J., Chair for spring 2018 in the Department of English.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4, 2018

4 p.m.

Beaumier Suites BC, Raynor Library
Reception immediately following

Father Stayer holds a double degree in music and literature from the University of Notre Dame, a master's and a doctorate in English literature from the University of Toledo, and a master's of divinity from Boston College. He has held faculty posts at Texas A&M University–Commerce and Universidad Centroamericana in El Salvador. Currently, he is associate professor of literature at John Carroll University in Cleveland, Ohio. In addition to articles and chapters on rhetoric, music and modernism, Father Stayer is the co-editor, with Ronald Schuchard and Iman Javadi, of Volume 5 (1934–1939) of The Complete Prose of T. S. Eliot (Johns Hopkins, 2017). His books include Think About It: Critical Skills for Academic Writing (2014), co-authored with John Mauk and Karen Mauk; T. S. Eliot, France, and the Mind of Europe (editor, 2015); and, in manuscript, Becoming T. S. Eliot: The Rhetoric of Voice and Audience in "Inventions of the March Hare." He currently serves as the vice president of the T. S. Eliot Society and is the president-elect of that organization. A professional singer, he has performed with the choruses of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the Cleveland Orchestra.

For questions or special needs, contact Debra Reeder at debra.reeder@marquette.edu or 414.288.7511.

MARQUETTE
UNIVERSITY

BE THE DIFFERENCE.