

Curriculum Vitae
Wendy Krueger, MS, CCC-SLP

Name: Wendy M. Krueger

Academic Rank: Clinical Instructor

Certification: CCC-SLP #01120951

Date Employed: 15 August 1998

Tenure track: N/A

Education

B.S. University of Wisconsin - Parkside, May 1987, Psychology

M.S. Marquette University, December 1992, Speech-Language Pathology

August 2004 – May 2005, Master's degree program in Counseling, part-time,
Marquette University

Clinical Service Delivery

Private practice speech-language pathologist, Kenosha, WI, June 1998 to present, part-time, intermittently. Provide diagnostic and therapy services to preschool and school-aged children with speech sound and language disorders.

All Saint's Healthcare/St. Mary's Medical Center, Racine, WI, August 1999-March 2000.

Per diem speech/language pathologist, providing weekend coverage to inpatient acute and rehab adult patients.

Kenosha Unified School District #1, August 1997-June 1998.

Speech/language pathologist. Served early childhood, primary and intermediate grades. Individual and small group therapy, team teaching, co-treatment with OT/PT.

Aandrus Medical Clinic, Kenosha, December 1997-May 1998.

Speech/language pathologist in private practice setting. Evaluated and treated adult and pediatric patients on outpatient basis. Collaboration with treating psychologists and counselors within clinic.

Therapy Network Services, Triad Health Services, Spectrum Personnel. June 1997- October 1997. Per diem contract speech-language pathologist,. Provided services in home health care, long-term/sub-acute, inpatient adult rehabilitation, outpatient pediatric and birth-to-three outpatient clinic settings.

Transitional Hospital Corporation (THC)- Milwaukee, March 1997- June 1997.

Speech/language pathologist at long-term acute care facility for medically-complex adult patients, primarily ventilator-dependent, tracheostomy patients. Primary areas included dysphagia (including videofluoroscopy), voice, augmentative communication, aphasia and cognitive disorders.

Kenosha Hospital and Medical Center, December 1992-March 1997.

Speech/language pathologist for adult acute, adult and pediatric outpatient clinic, home health care, sheltered workshop for developmentally disabled, contract work to long-term care facility and private school. Served wide variety of caseload and disorder types. Extensive experience with videofluoroscopy.

Clinical Supervision

Marquette University, August 1998 to present. Provided clinical supervision in Marquette University Speech and Hearing Clinic to undergraduate and graduate students through therapy and diagnostic practicum experiences. Client caseload has included toddler through geriatric patients with variety of disorders.

Courses Taught

SPPA 140/2210: Child Language Disorders, Spring 2009, 2010; 3 credit undergraduate course.
SPPA 243: Dysphagia, Summer 2001, 2003-2007; 3 credit graduate level course.
SPPA 295: Independent Study Fall 2005, Spring 2006, Spring 2007, Spring 2008, Spring 2009.
Guest Lectures in Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology in the following courses: Introduction to Communication Disorders, Clinical Procedures and Management, Diagnostic Methods in Speech Pathology, Methods and Procedures in School Speech and Hearing Programs, Clinical Grand Rounds in Speech-Language Pathology and Child Language Intervention Issues. Also in HESC 001: Orientation to Health Sciences. Varied semesters 1998-present.

Grant Applications

“Increasing Minority Representation in Speech-Language Pathology through BESC Program” $12,367, Grant for Projects on Multicultural Activities from American Speech-Language Hearing Association. Funded August 2002-July 2003; resulted in development of Summer Program for Youth, high school recruitment program at Marquette University.

Presentations

Krueger, W. and Conlon, B. Comparison of Dysphagia Competency Procedures in Medical and School Settings, poster presentation, American Speech-Language Hearing Association (ASHA) annual convention, Miami, FL, November 2006.

Erdman, K. and Krueger, W. Student Supervision in Medical and School Locations, 1st Annual Dr. Franklin Silverman Memorial Lecture Series, October 9, 2004, Marquette University; Wisconsin Speech-Language Hearing Association (WSHA) annual convention, April 2005, Madison, WI.

Krueger, W., Aranda, A., James, N. Recruiting Minority Youth to Careers in Speech-Language Pathology, poster presentation, ASHA annual convention, Chicago, IL, November 2003.

Kelly, D., Sondag, S.K., Erdman, K. and Krueger, W. Best Practice Considerations for Serving Latino Youngsters and Their Families, poster presentation, ASHA annual convention, November 2001.

Erdman, K., Kelly, D., Krueger, W., and Sondag, S. Strategies for Increasing SLP Services to the Latino Population, WSHA annual convention, Milwaukee, WI, February 2002.

Continuing Education

Meetings attended: WSHA Annual Convention 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2008;
ASHA Annual Convention 2003, 2006.

Workshops attended:

Interdisciplinary Council on Developmental and Learning Disorders (ICDL) Annual conference 2010: Redefining Autism, Washington, D.C., November 2010.

Autism and the SCERTS Model: A Comprehensive Educational Approach to Autism

Spectrum Disorders & Related Disabilities, Milwaukee, WI, November 2008.
The Affect-Based Language Curriculum (ABLC): Development of Oral Motor / Speech Skills and Functional Application of Sensory Integration for SLPs, Families and Teachers, Chicago, IL, September 2008.
ICDL Annual Conference 2007: Critical Factor for Optimal Outcomes for Children with Autism and Special Needs, Washington, D.C., November 2007.
Vital Stim Therapy Certification course, Chicago, IL, March 2007 (Audited).
Autism Spectrum Disorders: Etiology, Diagnoses & Treatment, Gurnee, IL, January 2007.
ASHA Health Care Conference 2006: State-of-the-art Clinical Practice for Speech-Language Pathologists in Medical and Rehabilitation Settings, Nashville, TN, April 2006.
Orofacial Myology: The Speech and Swallowing Connection and “Missing Link” to Comprehensive Oral-Motor Assessment and Management, Chicago, IL, December 2004.
ASHA Health Care Conference: Dysphagia in Adults and Children, Orlando, FL, February 2004.
Deep Pharyngeal Neuromuscular Stimulation: Effective Treatment of Pharyngeal Dysphagia, Milwaukee, WI, May 2003.
Feeding and Swallowing Issues in the School Setting, Waukesha, WI, February 2003.
Wisconsin Area Health Education Center (AHEC) System Annual Conference: Building the Health Care Workforce: Culture and Diversity, AMU, Marquette University, October, 2001.
Corporate Contracting Workshop, AMU, Marquette University, September 2001.
The Future of Dysphagia Management in Health Care: New Protocols, Physician Communication Strategies, Likely Competitors. Chicago, IL, June 2001.
Management of Pediatric Dysphagia, Chicago, IL, May 2001.
Compton P-ESL Training Workshop on Accent Reduction, Chicago, IL, September 1999.
Promoting Speech and Swallowing in Tracheostomized and Ventilator Dependent Patients, UW-Milwaukee, March 1997.

Service Activities

Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology Committees:

Member, Clinical Affairs Committee, Fall 1998 - present. Chair 2000-2001.

Member, Recruitment Committee, SPPA, Spring 1999 – Spring 2004. Acting Chair, Spring 2000. Participated in the following recruitment events:

- * Career Week in October, 1999.
- * College of Health Sciences Open House, April, 2000, November 2005, November 2006, April 2007, October 2010.
- * Auburndale High School, College of Health Sciences Day, Fall 2001.
- * Developed and implemented new high school recruitment initiative through Summer Program for Youth, Fall 2002- 2004.
- * Upward Bound summer program, 2003, 2004.
- * HCOP Saturday Academy, Fall 2004, Fall 2005, Spring 2009, Spring 2010.
- * Washington High School visit to MU-CHS, December 2004.
- * Coordinated / participated in Milwaukee Academy of Science

visit, March 2005, March 2006.

* Riverside University High School Career Fair, Spring 2005.

* Health Career club, Rufus King High School, Spring 2005.

* Community High School / Aurora Sinai Health Careers Club,
January 2007

* YES summer program – June 2007.

* Medical Explorers Club, United Community Center, November 2008.

* Veritas High School – Spring 2010.

Member, Graduate Admissions Committee, 1999-2000, 2001-2002, continuously
2003 – Spring 2007, Fall 2008.

Member, Faculty Search Committee, Spring 2001-Spring 2002, Fall 2006, Spring 2007.

Member and Chair, Bilingual English-Spanish Certificate (BIES) Program,

Spring 2001 – Summer 2005, member Fall 2005- Fall 2006.

College of Health Sciences: Health Career Opportunity Program (HCOP) – Representative for Department of Speech Pathology and Audiology, member of advisory board.

Professional

Member, American Speech-Language Hearing Association. Received (ACE)
Award for Continuing Education 2001-04. Member of Special Interest Divisions:
1 - Language Learning and Education, 11 -Administration and Supervision, 13 -
Swallowing and Swallowing Disorders (Dysphagia) and 14 – Communication Disorders and Sciences in Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Populations.

Member, Wisconsin Speech-Language Hearing Association. Chair of Convention Sub-committee for Student Volunteers, 2001 WSHA
Convention. Member of Editorial committee for *Communication
Connection*, quarterly newsletter, Fall 2004 – Fall 2006.

Interdisciplinary Council on Developmental and Learning Disorders, 2007-present.

Peer Reviewer, Dysphagia: Guide to Establishing a Restorative Mealtime Program, Professional Development Resources, Jacksonville, FL, Fall 2007.

Community

Member of Site Council, Lakeview Technology Academy, Kenosha
Unified School District # 1 (KUSD), 2006-2007.

Volunteer for annual hearing screenings KUSD, Grant Elementary School,
2002- 2004, Dimensions of Learning Academy, 2006, 2007, 2009.

Sponsor of Bridges scholarship benefit, KUSD program for at-risk high school students, 2001- 2007.

Member of Kenosha Orchestra Boosters (2000- present) and Kenosha Band
Boosters (2003-present), supporting music instruction in KUSD.

Member of parent-student-teacher organizations at Bose Elementary School (2010 – present), Dimensions of Learning Academy (2006-2009), Harvey Elementary School
(2004- 2006), Bullen Middle School (2000 – 2006, 2008-present) Bradford High School (Fall 2002- 2006) in KUSD.