Ready to Inspire Success and Excellence
Marquette University’s Multicultural Pre-Orientation
RISE occurs three days prior to move in and offers students:

- A first opportunity to establish relationships and networks with faculty, staff and peers.
- A chance to participate in sessions to ask questions and learn more about how to survive and thrive during freshman year.
- An atmosphere that promotes positive attitudes and stimulates a vibrant learning environment.
- An exclusive cultural and historical tour through Milwaukee’s neighborhoods.
- Supportive relationships and constructive feedback to help students make well-informed decisions.
