

ENROLL IN A STUDY ABROAD COURSE

MARQ 1005 CROSS-CULTURAL ISSUES IN STUDY ABROAD

A 1-credit, pass/fail course, designed to prepare students who are planning to study abroad as a component of their college career. Through interaction with staff from the Office of International Education, students obtain the skills and knowledge which are needed to maximize their study abroad, internship or international service-learning experience.

MARQ 3005 UNPACKING YOUR STUDY ABROAD EXPERIENCE

A 2-credit course designed specifically for students who have returned from an overseas academic experience. Through an interactive learning environment, students share their cross-cultural experiences, understand the different transformational moments of those experiences, and determine how they would like to integrate that transformation into the remainder of their undergraduate studies and future vocational choices.

MARQ 3961 LIVING JUSTICE: ACCOMPANIMENT IN AN UNJUST WORLD

A 3-credit online course that turns your service abroad into service-learning. Through community engagement and online course work, students study and reflect on how global issues are manifested locally and the role intercultural competence, social justice, solidarity, accompaniment, and vocation play in addressing these issues.
