Christological Hellenism: A Melancholy Proposal

SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 2024
2 p.m., Lubar Center in the Law School, Eckstein Hall

Dr. Lewis Ayres, Professor of Catholic and Historical Theology, Durham University; McDonald Agape Distinguished Chair in Early Christian Theology, Pontifica Università San Tommaso d’Aquino (Angelicum)

This lecture is a consideration of the manner in which Christianity was formed by its encounter with the traditions of Greek thought, and a consideration of how Christian thinkers today should continue to value that formative period.

The Père Marquette Lecture was established in 1969 under the auspices of the Marquette University Department of Theology. The series was endowed by the children of Joseph A. Auclier (1894-1986), a Milwaukee banker, in honor of their father. In keeping with its history, the lectureship continues to recognize and honor theologians of international renown whose work has made an outstanding original contribution to the field. The lectures are published by the Marquette University Press.

Free and open to the public
Reception to follow
Event parking available in the Eckstein Hall lot

Sponsored by the Marquette University Department of Theology
For further information, please email micah.hogan@marquette.edu.