

WOMEN & FAMILY HEALTH RESEARCH COMMUNITY GATHERING

12.04.2025 | 12:00–1:30 PM | Marquette University CTL Classroom, 330B

The newly launched Women and Family Health Research Collaborative invites you to join its first gathering of scholars and those interested in advancing initiatives focused on women's and family health.

We welcome scholars from all departments, schools, and colleges at Marquette to join us for lunch and discussion.

This event is free; registration is required.

Light lunch will be served.
