Marquette University’s Institute for Women’s Leadership presents

The No Club: Putting a Stop to Women’s Dead-End Work

With the MCW Council for Women’s Advocacy and Center for Advancing Women in Science and Medicine

Presented by: Laurie R. Weingart, Richard M. and Margaret S. Cyert Professor of Organizational Behavior and Theory at the Tepper School of Business, Carnegie Mellon University

Biography: Dr. Weingart has served as Carnegie Mellon University’s Interim Provost and Chief Academic Officer, and as Senior Associate Dean – Education and Director of the Accelerate Leadership Center within the Tepper School. Coauthor of The No Club: Putting a Stop to Women’s Dead-End Work, her research examines collaboration, conflict, and negotiation, with a focus on how differences across people both help and hinder effective problem solving and innovation. Prof. Weingart has published over 70 articles and book chapters in the fields of management, social psychology, industrial psychology, cognitive psychology, and economics.

2023 Annual Kathy Sheehan Lecture

Kathy Sheehan’s forty-year career at MCW was defined by a focus on the empowerment of women. After Kathy retired, the Women’s Faculty Council created the Annual Kathy Sheehan Lectureship to honor her spirit, passion, dedication and impactful contributions in advancing women. Kathy was a champion for all MCW faculty, with a focus on female faculty members.
