

MARQUETTE UNIVERSITY

COLLEGE OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Patent Update: How, When and Why IT Companies Should Use Them?

*Jill Gilbert Welytok, CPA,
Absolute Technology Law Group, LLC*

COMMUNITY VOICES

Inventor Mentor

JILL GILBERT WELYTOK

River Hills resident Jill Gilbert Welytok is a patent attorney and author who is the facilitator of the Ozaukee/Northshore Inventors' and Entrepreneurs' Forum.

Her blog focuses on local inventors who had great ideas and were able to bring them to fruition.

MORE ABOUT JILL | E-MAIL JILL | JILL'S WEB SITE

Jill is the author of several internationally published books on intellectual property, tax and technology related topics. Her most recent books are Sarbanes-Oxley for Dummies and The Entrepreneur's

Guide to Patents, Copyrights, Trademarks, Trade secrets and Licensing. Ms. Welytok has participated in copyright litigation matters involving the music and movie industries. She holds a J.D. from DePaul University in Chicago, where she was on the Law Review, and a Masters Degree in Computer Science from Marquette University. Ms. Welytok also holds an LL.M. in Taxation. She was formerly a tax consultant with the predecessor firm to Ernst & Young. She speaks on corporate and nonprofit governance issues and on taxation issues relevant to intellectual property transactions. She is admitted to practice before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, the U.S. District Tax Court and in Wisconsin and Illinois.

November 8, 2007, Thursday, 5:30—7 PM
Venue: 100 Todd Wehr

For more information contact terence.ow@marquette.edu

